VEGET FOR CHILLS, SHAKES, FEVER AND AGUE.

TARBORO, N. C., 1878.

Dr. R. H. Stevens : Dear Sir-1 feel very grateful for what your valuable midicine, Vegetine, have done in my family. I wish to express my thanks by informing you of the wonderful cure of my son; also, to let you know that Vegetine is the best medicine I ever saw for Chills, Shakes, Fever and Ague. My son was sick with measles in 1873 which left him with Hip joint disease. My son suffered a great deal of pain, all of the time; the pain was so great he did nothing but cry. The doctors did not help him a particle, he could not lift his foot from the floor, he could not move without crutches. I read your advertisement in the Louisville Courier-Journal, that Vegetine was a great Blood Purifier and Blood Food. I tried one bottle, which was a great benefit. He kept on with the medicine, gradually gaining. He has taken eighteen bottles in all, and he is completely restored to health, walks without crutches or cane. He is twenty years of age. I have a younger son, fifteen years of age, who is subject to Chills. Whenever he feels one coming on, he comes in, takes a dose of Vegetine and that is the last of the Chill. Vegetine leaves no bad effect upon the system like most of the medicine recommended for Chills. I cheerfully recommend Vegetine for such complaints. I think it is the greatest medicine in the world.

Respectfully Mrs. J. W. LLOYD.
VEGETINE.—When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the Vegetine will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors. cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

VEGETINE DYSPEPSIA, FOR NERVOUSNESS, AND GENERAL DEBILITY.

BERNARDSTON, MASS., 1878. We, the undersigned, having used Vegetine, take pleasure in recommending it to all those troubled with Humors of any kind, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, or General Debility, it being the great Blood Purifier. Sold by R. L. Crowell & Sons, who sell more of it than all other patent medicine put together.

1829, by a treaty under which Sultan Mahmou i II., had to pay $4,000,000 as compensation to Russian merchants, and also $25,000,000 in ten halfycar instalments of $2,500,000 each, Russian troops to compy the country until the last farthing had been reimbursed, the whole left bank of the Danube being surrendered to the Muscovite invaders. There are yet further instances. Napoleon, during the whole of the first empire, had paid one half of the general expenditure of France by pecuniary assessments on forego countries. After Waterloo, settling day arrived, on which, by the treaty of Paris (November 20,

WAR INDEMNITIES.—There was a Russo

Turkish war which terminated in September,

1815). France had to pay the large sum of $307. 000,000 to the foreign countries that had so been laid under contributions; also, having to pay, clothe and entirely maintain a foreign army of occupation (150,000) for not less than three, nor more than five years, under the command of Wellington, until the whole amount was paid. This is no isolated incident of the past. The principle which was acted upon, as here stated, at the close of the French war in 1815, and of the Russian war in 1829, was revived in 1864, when Prussia and Austria, baving invaded Denmark without any just cause, overpowered her numerical fore:, robbed her of the Duchies of Schleswig and Holstein, and exacted a large money payment to defray the expenses of the war. Still more recent was the exaction of five milliards of francs, $1,000,000,000 by Prussia from France as war indemnity, in 1871, with the surrender of the Rhine provinces of Alsace and Lorraine. The money was paid in gold before the appointed day, and the provinces were annexed at ones. Bismarck was far more exacting toward France in 1871 than Gortschakoff has been against Turkey in 1877. The Franco. German war cost Germany $235 000 000. which deducted from the $1,000,000,000 of indemnity paid by France, leaves a clear profit of $75,000.000. The cost of the war to France was $1,855,000,000. without reckoning the money value of Alsace Lorraine, estimated at $865,000,000 more. War is a bad thing-for the losers. THE KING OF SPAIN .- In the April Scribner there was a sketch of the school life of the new Queen of Spain. Another writer describes in the May number the marriage of Mercedes. We quote the following about the King: As to the king, Madame de Calderon says he is most extraordinary for his intelligence Nervous Headache, and also for Rheumatism, and and information. There is no subject suggested have found entire relief from both, and take great pleasure in recommending it to all who may be something you have not heard before, and that with a tact and modesty which makes it more interesting. Politics, literature, art, it is the same with all of them. Madame Calderon went with him and his sister to the Picture Gallery once (soon after he came), and he astonished the directors and the president by his information, giving them a dissertation on the pre-Raphaelites.

We have been to see the American embassador, Mr. Lowell, who confirms this report of the king's eleverness. He dived with him at La Grange, and, after dinner, the king came on the verauda and spoke with all his guests. Instead of talking American politics, as ore roed heads generally do with Americans. and blundering over them, the king talked of Spanish literature with Mr. Lowell, criticising with an originality which convinced Mr. Lowell that he had an opinion of his own and was not "crammed" for the occasion. And he s but twenty! It is delightful to know that his bride is worthy of him. Madame de Calieron says Mercedes is as good as she is pretty, and they are as devoted to each other as any two young lovers in ordinary life. IF GUILTY, EXCOMMUNICATE HER .- S. V. White, who is a leading member of the Piymouth Church Committee, does not share in the denunciation of Mrs. Tilton as a crazy woman, but insists that she ought to be tried on the charges of lying and slandering her pastor, and if guilty, excommunicated; and his judgment will probably have much influence with the committee. Mr. Shearman was applied to and questioned in regard to a letter seat to Beecher on Tuesday, in behalf of Mrs. Fitton, informing him that she had not intended to publish the confession until he had been given twenty four hours' notice; and also concerning one written by Mrs. Tilton to Mrs. Raymond, as well as those said to have been written by Mrs. Morse to Mr. Beecher, after he had refused to accede to her demands for money for the support of Mrs. Tilton. When asked it any such demands had been made, Shearman unhesitatingly replied in the affirmative. They were refused, he said, and Mrs. Morse then would inform dealers and others that he is prewrote to Beccher in regard to the matter. These letters were not in his possession, but he supposed Beecher had been sensible enough to preserve them. In regard to the letter written by Mrs. Tilton to Mrs. Raymond in which she had made the same contession of her gilt as that contained in the published statement, Shearman said the document was in his pes session, but it was a private letter to a lady and

> Two Dresses in One -Women who are obliged to consult economy, and yet whose social duties necessitate frequent going to dinners and evening parties, can make one dress serve the purpose of two by planning it as follows:-A dress, say of olive silk, is composed of two shades, the corsage being completed by a high necked vest of the lighter shade. The slee v s, fy your building, but reaching to the elbows, are finished by demi sleeves like the vest. This is the toilerre wera in the day time at visits and receptions. For the evening, the high vest is removed, as it is only booked under the fronts of the corsage on each side, and it is replaced by a vest of red silk opening square, and completed by a chemisette of pleated white tulle. The lower part of the sleeve is also removed, retaining only the clbow sleeves, which are finished with frills of pleated white tulle. This simple device suffices, with a red flower in the hair, to metamorphose a sombre day dress into a gay evening trilette. would be equally pretty and effective combina-
